I believe my father, William A. Naleid, served on DD776 in the Pacific in WWII. He lives in Racine, WI and I'll be visiting with him and my mother at the end of this month. Are crew lists available from date of commissioning through 1945? My father doesn't have access to a computer but I'll send him photocopies of the website pages about the James C. Owens.

I served on the Owens from February, 1959 until January, 1961. I came on board as an Electrician and wound up in the Radar room. I met many weird people but I, also, met many fun and dedicated sailors who wanted to do their jobs. When I came aboard, it was in drydock for 3 months. Our 1st voyage out was a speed run, on a glass smooth ocean. What I liked most were the trips to all the ports. Cuba, Jamaica, Mediteranean, Scotland, (hit a whale, another drydock). There were so very many tales of the ship I could go into but I don't want it to interfere with my book.

While cleaning out the engineers sleeping compartment during the 1962 FRAMM2 overhaul in Charleston I came across a solid brass plaque painted into a corner. Over the years I would wonder what the story was about it, who made it? was it the only one? Anybody know about it? Note: No i will not part with for any thing, it looks just great on the wall with the one's from the other ships that I was on and got by means fair and foul.

In a recent issue of Navy Times 1-30-2006 was an article that from now until July 2006 you can enter your name picture for free. It's open to all Navy, Marine, and Coast Guard members. That's a good deal. When I joined it was $ 50. All you have to do is go to www.lonesailor.org/log_intro.php. See you in Branson.

Spent a lot of time on the bridge as Bos'un mate of the watch. Anyone ever hear from D.J. Neely BM3, Clyde Mott BMSN, Ronnie Shrum BMSN, or the ship's barber Jeff Blackledge? I'm hoping to make the Branson MO. reunion this Sept. and would like to hear from anyone that might remember me. Thanks.

Just discovered the web site for the Owens. I sailed on her from 57' through 60'. Two Med cruises, Oslo Norway to Karachi Pakistan, Germany to Lebanon. But I can't forget those wonderful trips to Guantanamo,(two of them). Rammed a fishing boat on the Elbe river in Germany, and our gunners mates shot up the fantail with 30 caliber machine guns, Tied a broom to our #1 stack when we sailed into Norfolk and got our depthcharge rack caught on the anchor of the Fox DD778. "McHales Navy?"

I enjoyed reading the history of the OWENS. One question, though: Why is there no information concerning the Vietnam cruise in 1968? I was there enjoying almost every minute of it and was very surprised to find no mention of that time period in the history. I still have a Cruise Book from that cruise if it is of any interest to anyone else but me.

Thanks and keep up the good work!!

add, just getting older. Cannot make the 2005 CA reunion, but promise that I'll try for the Branson in 06. I seem to remember always collecting photo's of "my" ships, will check to see if any "new" ones of the JC are in my files when I get to them, if so, will fwd them to our Assn. Till then, enjoy, the weather is brutal up here in Michigan,

Hi Guys,

Since I now have the job as ship historian, I would appreciate it if any of you guys out there could help me out. I am looking for Owens info to put in album form for the 40's, 50's, 60's and 70's. Pictures or any printed material will work. Just email me and we can sort things out. I am also trying to put together info concerning Lt. James C. Owens Jr whom our ship was named for and anything concerning any of the skippers of the Owens. With your help, I can, perhaps, make something memorable.

Thanks,

Greg Flanigan (SOG2) 1955 to 1958

P.S. By the way, all who did show up at the reunion in Chattanooga missed a great time.

I cross-decked from USS Perkins (DD 877) to USS James C. Owens (DD 776) in January 1973. When she was decommissioned and transferred to Brazil in July 1973, we cross-decked to USS Hamner (DD 718). During this timeframe, all three of these ships were homeported in San Francisco, CA (Treasure Island) and were utilized primarily as reserve training ships. Received the San Diego Reunion Book. It is great. The color made the difference. Anyone who didn't order one missed out on a very nice book. Looking forward to Omaha.

I'm already a member(although my dues are due right now) but have not attended any reunions. My time on 776 was from 9/67 to 12/68 in Vietnam. That seems to be a rather sparsely accounted for period by our members. Most are from earlier years. As I get older, I am drawn back to my past would love to meet up with shipmates from my era. I'll keep in touch and when the spirit moves me, I'll be there!

Keep up the good work and I hope to see you all soon.

Hi Keith, Bill McDonald here 52-53. Sorry to say the only reunion I have made was in St.Louis. I really enjoy the news letters, and hope to make it to omaha this year. Have a question Keith, do you know where a fellow might get or purchase a copy of our World cruise, and stay in Korea. I have misplaced mine some years ago and would like to replace it. Hope all is well with you and hope to see you in Omaha.

My father, Thomas Zawalish, served on this ship. I am not sure of the date, I'm trying very hard to find that out, but I know he was discharged in '47. If anyone can give me any information regarding this ship and if anyone knew my dad, please contact me.

Thanks.

Hi Shipmates...The James C. Owens was my first ship. I wasn't on her very long, but I made a lot of good friends during my short stay. I served on the Owens from 1969-70 in Charleston S.C.
